THE BOARD'S ANSWER

On the Result of the Investigation.

A RESOLUTION WAS ADOPTED

Defining the Attitude of the Board on the East End Disclosures—Petitions Were Received, and Some Referred Back for Correction—Interesting Debates.

The board of education met last night, notwithstanding a report in an irresponsible sheet to the contrary. A lengthy session followed and a general discussion on all matters that have created such dissension and differences of opinions in the minds of the people, relative to the action of the board on the Bible question and agitation over alleged injustices shown the scholars in the East End schools, was argued pro and con. A resolution, declaring the attitude of the board on the East End question, was presented by Mr. Taylor and accepted by the board as voicing their sentiments. The meeting opened promptly at 7:30, with Members Owen, Smith, Nellis, Golding, Taylor and Mrs. Whitehead present. Superintendent Sanor was an interested spectator, and occasionally interjected a suggestion on topics of interest that came up for the consideration of the board.

The reading of the minutes of a number of preceding meetings was dispensed with, approved and the payment of a bill of $2.55 from Andy Watson for supplies was ordered paid. The secretary then read a memorial addressed to the board from the Epworth League, of the Methodist Episcopal church, asking that the board rescind their action on the reading of the Bible in the public schools.

The memorial was couched in language that brought forth expressions of approval from the members of the board. Mr. Taylor said: "I move that the secretary be instructed to inform the members of the Epworth League that we, as a board, are in entire sympathy with the doctrine of the League in its relation to Christianity. The language used, commented Mr. Taylor, is nicely put up, and speaks well for the person who wrote it." The motion prevailed without a dissenting voice.

A memorial from the Y. P. S. C. E., of Second U. P. church, was next read, but did not meet with the approval of the board, as did its predecessor. The communication approved of the course taken by Mrs. Whitehead, and warmly commended Miss Little for the courage that she had shown. It also extended hearty co-operation to all teachers who took a similar attitude on the reading of the Bible.

Mr. Whitehead—Mr. President, the communication received is not a statement of the facts and should be referred back for correction. A motion made to this effect carried.

A number of communications received were unsigned, and the board were unanimous in the thought that some signatures should be attached to them before given official recognition. Some discussion on the authenticity of the statements in communications referred to the board followed. Mr. Taylor thought that somebody must be misinformed. He did not think that an intentional misstatement of the facts would be given, and in the course of remarks that followed, Mrs. Whitehead vouchsafed, interrogatively, that she did not yet clearly understand the attitude of the board on the all absorbing question; that is, the action taken in regard to the reading of the Bible. President Smith endeavored to explain that the board sanctioned the Bible as a reference book, but objected to a formal reading of it at the opening of school each morning.

Mr. Whitehead—Did you not tell Superintendent Sanor to instruct all teachers to discontinue the reading of the Bible.

President Smith, rather emphatically—"Yes, I did." Mrs. Whitehead—Can we then use it as other books?

President Smith—"No, the Bible shall not be used as a text book." Mr. Taylor in a few remarks, coincided with what the president just said. Adding further, he said that he had told Miss Jessop that both teachers and scholars could bring their Bibles to the school and have them on their desks if they wished. If the board are censurable, then censure them. Mr. Taylor referred to the construction that had been placed upon the action of the board. It had been said that the Bible had been banished. This was a strong term to use, thought Mr. Taylor, and was entirely inappropriate and he contended that the Bible was not banished.

Mr. Whitehead then made reply, that it would not be long until it would be entirely banished from the schools if the present action of the board was any criterion.

Mrs. Whitehead then made reply, that it is within the board's province to direct the superintendent in this matter.

Mr. Sanor took occasion here to score parents who complained of the

Mr. Taylor, with much force—"I thank God that there are men in this town that take more liberal views. Then the communication that had been read before this spirited discussion came up, was referred back for correction.

Then Reverend George, who preached here some time since, and assailed the attitude of the board, came in for a few derogatory comments.

A communication from the Presbyterian church, characterizing the action of the board as dishonoring God, was next read. Another communication also received was laid to one side because it was unsigned.

Mr. Smith called for remarks, and Mrs. Whitehead said: "I would like to have the board understand that my position is with me and my God. The opinion of the town does not direct me in my stand. I feel conscientious about this, and have prayed for the board."

Mr. Smith—We differ in our opinions.

Mrs. Whitehead previously made a motion that the communication from the Presbyterian church be received. Owen said that he could not second the motion because of the objectionable clause in it that the board were dishonoring God.

Golding—Do you believe, Mrs. Whitehead, that we are dishonoring God?

Mrs. Whitehead—I do.

Then followed a spirited argument between Mrs. Whitehead and Mr. Golding on the rights and considerations that Catholics are entitled to in the public schools.

Mr. Golding thought that if gems were to be used instead of the Bible that they select those that would not be obnoxious to the Catholics in their belief.

Mr. Taylor—Do you believe, Mrs. Whitehead, that there are any Christian Catholics?

Mrs. Whitehead—I do. And I would to God that members of our church were as loyal as they are to their church. This was spoken with great depth of feeling.

The minds of the board suddenly reverted back to the petition that had been lost sight of temporarily, during the debate on the rights of Catholics. A motion to refer the petition back to the original authors for correction was carried.

Mr. Golding maintained, in reference to the clause objected to in the petition, that if he thought that the board were dishonoring God, he wanted to get out of it; but he did not think they were.

Another unsigned petition was laid to one side. Mr. Taylor wanted it understood that it was not the intention of the board to antagonize the Christian societies.

Mr. Nellis—They certainly must be misinformed. Perhaps it has been preached to them, added Mr. Owen. These comments referred to alleged misrepresentations of facts in petitions received.

A memorial from the Second United Presbyterian church, of the East End, was next deemed incorrect and it went the way of many of its predecessors.

The committee appointed to communicate with the Smaad Heating and Ventilating company, reported that no answer had been received from them yet.

The East End question of the differences up there was next given attention. Mr. Brookes had informed the Secretary that he did not think it was necessary to continue the hearing any further, as the balance of the testimony that had not been introduced was practically the same as had been heard.

Mr. Taylor, referring to the liberties that should be given the scholars, said that the teachers should use discretion in the matter; and that the rule that is now in vogue in the schools should be done away with.

President Smith, rather emphatically—"Yes, I did."

Mrs. Whitehead—Can we then use it as other books?

President Smith—"No, the Bible shall not be used as a text book." Mr. Taylor in a few remarks, coincided with what the president just said. Adding further, he said that he had told Miss Jessop that both teachers and scholars could bring their Bibles to the school and have them on their desks if they wished. If the board are censurable, then censure them.

Mr. Taylor referred to the construction that had been placed upon the action of the board. It had been said that the Bible had been banished. This was a strong term to use, thought Mr. Taylor, and was entirely inappropriate and he contended that the Bible was not banished.

Golding, firmly—I don't believe that, Mr. Sanor.

Sanor—I think that these matters should be left in the hands of the capable and he contended that the Bible was not banished.

Taylor—I think that it is within the board's province to direct the superintendent in this matter.

Mr. Sanor took occasion here to score parents who complained of the treatment of their children without ever consulting with the teacher or himself. It was almost the unanimous opinion of the board, judging from the testimony given last Monday night, that the teacher had erred. Complaint was also made that children were refused water, and it was suggested that hereafter they be furnished with water and have the privilege of recess. Then the following resolution, submitted by Mr. Taylor, outlining the expression of the board in regard to their opinion on the investigation of the East End agitation, was read and adopted. The following is the resolution.

Resolved, That the regulation in the schools, so far as it relates to scholars being detained after school hours for having received permission to go out during school hours, be abolished, and that the superintendent of the schools impress upon each teacher the necessity of using the greatest care possible with scholars, particularly those of tender years, and further.

Resolved, That the board, superintendent and teachers would consider it a great help to the proper conducting of the schools, in the advancement of scholarship and good government, if the parents and children would apprise the teacher first of any complaint, or irregularity that may seem to exist, and especially the particular condition and weakness of any child, it being the desire of the board, superintendent and teacher alike to conduct the schools in a manner that will be productive of the best results, keeping in mind careful thought for the health of the children. Further, resolved that the parents of all children should assist the conductors of the schools in all reasonable ways in the judicious enforcement of all rules which have for their end the advancement, obedience and good behavior of the scholars.

A letter from Miss Moore was read in her defense in the event of the introduction of more testimony by parents. The question of the board electing two members from each ward was to have been brought up last night, but was forgotten. It was the intent of the board to take action toward this step, as we are a city district of the first-class. The meeting then adjourned.

CLAIMS COMMITTEE.

The Electric Light Bill the Only One Referred Back.

Claims committee met last night and passed upon the following bills: C. F. Lease, $1.10; Henry Deidrick, $12.30; Robert Hall, $8.35; August Giethen, $1.25; E. C. Hood, $7; Simms & Scott, $20; Surls & Stewart, $20; News Review, $4.65; J. W. Clark, $10.20; W. O. Hamilton, $1.50; S. E. Wanamaker, $1; C. Mutsch, $4.40; Faulk Bros. & Co., $27; John W. Wyman, $55.00; feeding prisoners, $3.00; William Jennings, $4.50; Frank Earle, $49.00; Harry Meanor, $49.00; Elmer McMillan, $49.00; Clint Morley, $50.00; James McCullough, $50.00; Joshua Curfman, $50.00; jury and witness fees in the Thompson case, $37.00; Robert Martin, $4.50; Isaac Shamp, $23.62; James Smith, $1.50; John A. George, $114.55; George H. Owen, $20.00; Eagle Hardware Company, $17.24; Tom Bryan, $50.00; James Finley, $21.75; William Welch, $50.00; R. Nagle, $20.25; A'Ex. Bryan, $21.00; Norman, $2.00.

The bill of the Ceramic City Light company for $532 was referred back, as there was no allowance in the bill for lights being out on various occasions.

NAILED THEM IN.

The Youngsters Have Fun With a Couple of Their Number.

The small boys have an immense amount of fun in playing around the large boxes that are left standing at the corner of Fourth and Washington streets, but capped the climax yesterday afternoon, when they nailed two of their companions and a small dog in one of the boxes. After nailing the box up tight they tipped it over on its side on the pavement, and took their departure, leaving the boys to get out the best way they could.

A great deal of hammering was then commenced, and the boys at last succeeded in pushing a board off and crawling out, adding much to their own comfort as well as that of the dog.

WARM THANKS.

Letter From Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus Gotchall.

The following letter will be of interest to the large circle of warm friends and personal acquaintances of the late G. E. Gotchall:

EDITOR NEWS REVIEW:—We wish, through the medium of your paper, to express our thanks to the many kind friends of Prof. Gotchall who gave us their help and sympathy in the hour of our great need. Especially would we extend thanks to the family of W. S. McLane, with whom our dear son made his home during his residence in East Liverpool, for the kindness which made his stay among them so pleasant, and for the close attention and tender care they gave him during his illness; and also to the choir and congregation of the First United Presbyterian church, for the respect and consideration which they ever manifested for him, and for which he, in his life time, was deeply conscious, and which we, in our sorrow and bereavement, gratefully acknowledge and appreciate.

MR. AND MRS. CYRUS GOTCHALL,
Kilgore, Ohio.

AT THE UNION

The Employees Listened With Wrapt Attention.

Evangelist Schiverec preached to employees of the Union pottery today. The meeting was held in the passage-way adjoining the engine room. The following pastors were present: Revs. Huffer, Sloane and Whitehead. Mr. Weeden sang a touching selection and the employees joined in the song service with much earnestness. The evangelist entered into his discourse with energy and preached on the follies of a workman laboring hard for wages and then spending it for drink. He cited Christ as a mechanic and said that all those who labor should look to Christ and benefit for their labor would follow. At the close of the address all came forward and grasped the hands of all those who conducted the services.

A LARGE SHIPMENT.

An Extra Large Order of Ware Shipped Today.

One of the largest shipments of ware handled at the freight depot since the strike, was billed this morning. The shipment consisted of 30 casks, weighing from 825 to 1075 pounds per cask, and was billed to Huddleson & Company, San Francisco, by the Globe pottery company. This is a very large order and would indicate that East Liverpool ware is well placed on the Pacific coast. Business at the freight depot is booming, and the indications are that the spring trade will be unusually good with the potteries, considering the amount of ware that is being shipped away every day.

TAKEN DOWN.

The Mail Box at the Passenger Depot Removed.

The postal authorities at Washington notified Postmaster Miskall to do away with the mail box at the passenger depot, and accordingly the box was taken down yesterday afternoon.

The reason ascribed for this is that the officials of the railroad have instructed their employees not to take the mail from this box, because of the loss of time entailed in performing this mission. The removal of the box will be the source of inconvenience to many who used it. It probably was used more for this purpose than any two other boxes on the streets of the city.

PLEAD GUILTY.

Two Boys Disturbed the Salvation Army Sunday.

William Jones had a hearing before Mayor Gilbert last night, to answer to the charge of disturbing a religious meeting on last Sunday afternoon. The boy said they were just passing cigarette pictures around, but the mayor fined them $5.60 for so doing.

Edward Gallagher, the other boy implicated in the charge, who was arraigned yesterday, and plead not guilty, changed his mind this morning and was assessed $6.60 by the mayor. It is safe to say that the boys will study awhile before getting boisterous again in a religious meeting.

A WARNING.

To a Man Who is Known to Beat His Wife.

If a certain man, who is known to indulge in the brutal practice of wife beating, does not desist from the habit, he will be arrested and dealt with according to law. This should serve as a warning to him, and if he is wise he will heed it and avoid trouble, as the officers are on his track, and will arrest him on the first provocation. Such fellows as this one should not even be given a warning. A man of this calibre is of no use to himself or to the community.

WERE VERY DRUNK.

Three men, considerably under the influence of liquor, annoyed the residents of Seventh street at a late hour last night by their boisterous actions. All three were residents of the West End, and were on their way home.

STILL GREAT CROWDS

The People of East Liverpool In Earnest.

WHAT WILL THE HARVEST BE

The Field is Ripe for the Reaper, and the Indications are Brightening for the Accomplishment of Great Good—Evangelist Schiverec Cheered by the Work of His Helpers.

There is no abatement of interest in the meetings at the risk; on the contrary, there seems to be a growing desire on the part of our citizens to hear Evangelist Schiverec, as the multitude recognizes the fact that he is deeply in earnest, and that he depends entirely on the Master in this fight of Right against Wrong; this struggle of Good against Evil.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
Of Ohio.

SETTLE THE QUESTION.

Fathers and mothers—heads of households; lovers of good government; lovers of our grand and glorious public school system; lovers of social purity, morality and clean lives, settle the Bible question in your hearts and lives. Then settle it with your ballot, first at the primaries and then at the spring election. If the Bible be God's inspired word, then it is the book which should and must control human destinies and lives, preparing children for time and for eternity. God can do the work without human aid; but we believe that, in this instance, he will use human instruments to "roll away the stone." Be up and doing. Have the courage of your convictions, Christian men and women. If God be on your side, all the machinations and petty trickery of men will amount to nothing against you. Turn on the light.

READ VERY CAREFULLY.

Yes, read very carefully the remarks made by the members of our school board, at the meeting held last night. You will find a full report in today's issue. Don't misjudge any members of the board. Judge him or her on their own language. It is very plain reading, and any one of common sense may plainly see who favors the reading of the Bible in our public schools, and who does not. Read carefully, however, and then vote just as carefully. Don't cast a ballot for the man or woman who objects to the reading of the Bible in the schools of East Liverpool, even if that person be the dearest friend you have on earth. The matter has gone beyond personality. It is now a matter of Christian principle. God will not be mocked. He will not allow his inspired word to be added to or taken from. Yes, read last night's session very carefully.

THE LITTLE CHILD.

What little child have we reference to? A little boy, 10 years of age, bright and winsome, a resident of East Liverpool, and who has heard Evangelist Schiavera speak of the curse of card playing, in the home circle, said to his mother the other day: "Mamma, I wish you and papa would not play cards in our home. I want to go to heaven, and I want you and papa to be there with me; won't you quit playing cards at our home?" The words cut to the heart. The husband and father was away from home, but the wife could not await his return. She wrote him a kindly, wifely, loving letter, relating the incident just as it had occurred, and when his answer came, how it gladdened her heart, for her husband is a manly man, and his letter said: "Yes, dear, we want to meet our boy in heaven, please God, and we will banish cards and the card table now and forever, from our home." "And a little child shall lead them." Schiavera, thank God, the seed has fallen upon good ground.

NAME YOUR CANDIDATES.

Get out your candidates, oh ye lovers of the Bible and believers in the "READING OF THE BIBLE IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS." Fair play compels us to say that, as business men, and men of ability, the present board is composed of men who are fully able to take care of business affairs connected with educational matters. The only question to which the public demands an answer is: "Are the candidates for or against the reading of the Bible in the public schools of East Liverpool?" This must be the issue; this is the living, throbbing, all-absorbing issue; this is the verdict of the people. Men and women who advocate the blessed word of God, and its reading in the schools, by the teachers, to the pupils, must exhibit common sense, and use this blessing as given by God. Republican advocates of the "Reading" of the book, you have only until tomorrow night, Wednesday, March 11th, to name your candidates on this ticket. Be up and doing. Don't let this opportunity pass, and then cry out that the Republican Central committee has not used you fairly. Name your candidates at once, and have an explicit, undeniable understanding with them that they favor the reading of the Bible in the schools.

HOT TALK OVER CUBA.

Conference Report Blocked In the Senate.

HALE'S VIGOROUS OPPOSITION.

He Says the United States' Interference in European Affairs Is Insolent—Tries to Read Minister De Lome's Statement, but Some Senators Object.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Another stirring chapter in the Spanish-Cuban controversy has been added by the senate. Many senators indicated a desire to be heard on the subject and the conference report, accepting the house Cuban resolutions, went over until today. In anticipation that the last stage of the Cuban question would be reached, the greatest crowd of spectators seen since the session opened was present.

The speech of the day was made by Senator Hale (Me.), in vigorous opposition to this resolution and to the offensive interference of the United States in foreign questions. The senator declared that the spirit of militarism was abroad in the land; that our course involved the possibilities of war with all its dreadful consequences. Mr. Hale brought out the friendly action of Spain at the time of our civil war, when British built privateers were prevented from remaining for any length of time in Spanish ports and when American prisoners were aboard they were released by Spanish orders.

A dramatic incident occurred when Mr. Hale offered to read the statement of Minister de Lome of Spain, calling in question the accuracy of some of the statements made by Senators Sherman, Morgan and Lodge concerning Spanish atrocities. Mr. Davis of Minnesota quickly objected to the reception of a document from a foreign minister not formally transmitted. Messrs. Mitchell of Oregon and Teller added their protests in the same direction. For a time there was some confusion and a prospect of a serious scene, but serenity was brought about by Senator Davis by withdrawal of the objection.

It is expected the debate will continue to have an animated phase. Mr. Hoar offered a resolution postponing all action on the Cuban question until April 6. This resolution will come up under the rules today and may form the basis of opposition to an adoption of the house conference report. Another resolution by Mr. Hoar was adopted, calling on the president for all available information on the Cuban question.

STILL RIOTING IN SPAIN.

A Mob Stones the U. S. Consul's Residence In Bilbao.

MADRID, March 10.—The turbulent element in the city of Bilbao, which created disturbances, continued to defy the authorities and has made violent demonstrations in spite of the armed threat of the gendarmes.

The disorders were renewed near the American consulate and a determined effort was made to reach the building where the consulate is located. The gendarmes showed equal determination in frustrating this attempt and succeeded.

But this was not done without a serious collision between the mob and gendarmes, in which 20 of the former are known to have been injured, though it is not stated that any fatalities resulted. Nine of the gendarmes were also injured.

Elsewhere in Spain the situation positively is that the entire blame rests with J. H. Aiken, the motorman of the eastbound car, who was so seriously injured that he died.

MAX LEBAUDY'S BLACKMAILERS.

Famous Men on Trial in Paris—An Actress Defended Him.

PARIS, March 10.—The trial of Armand Rosenthal (Jacques St. Cere), Count Lionel Werther de Cesti, M. Balensi, a banker; Ulric de Civry, formerly editor of The Echo de L'Arme; M. Poidebar de Labryere and M. Szyldowicz, charged with blackmailing Max Lebaudy, the young millionaire who died recently in the military hospital at Amlie-Les-Bains out of large sums of money and by the most cruel frauds, has been commenced here.

Rosenthal was formerly connected with The Paris Figaro, and was correspondent in this city for a New York newspaper.

During his latter days Lebaudy was defended against his enemies by Milla, Marsy, the well known Parisian actress.

MT. STERLING, O., March 10.—Wesley Passwaters has shot and wounded his divorced wife in the mouth and shoulder and then shot himself, probably fatally. He is a prominent citizen. He objected to her possible remarriage.

The ship's destination was changed to other West India points and she sailed. Then this cable was received: "Have no other news, can you proceed."

The inference is that the local authorities had resolved to retaliate against American commerce and the Madrid government interposed.

THE ST. LOUIS COLLISION.

Three Men Have Died and One Has Fatal Injuries.

ST. LOUIS, March 10.—Three men are dead and one more is not expected to live as the result of the collision on the St. Louis and Kirkwood Electric line, mentioned in these dispatches yesterday. Fifty more are more or less seriously, but not fatally injured.

The dead are: Richard Lanagan, insurance agent, St. Louis; Junius A. Jones, claim agent M. K. & T. railway, and J. H. Aiken, motorman car No. 3, eastbound. Sam Smith, motorman car No. 2, westbound, will likely die, both legs being broken, his head crushed and he is internally injured.

General Manager Houseman states positively that the entire blame rests with J. H. Aiken, the motorman of the eastbound car, who was so seriously injured that he died.

OPENED BY FORAKER.

Republican State Convention Convened This Afternoon.

A HOT FIGHT ON DR. M'NEIL.

Half a dozen candidates want to be named for dairy and food commissioner—stated delegates-at-large will be named.

COLUMBUS, March 10.—The Republican state convention assembled in this city at 3:30 this afternoon to nominate candidates for secretary of state, member of board of public works, judge of supreme court and dairy and food commissioner, and to select four delegates-at-large to the Republican national convention at St. Louis.

JOSEPH B. FORAKER.

Senator-elect Foraker is presiding as temporary chairman.

It is practically settled that Governor Bushnell, Senator-elect Foraker, Congressman Grosvenor and Hon. Mark Hanna will be the delegates-at-large. All are pledged for McKinley for president, although Grosvenor and Hanna represent McKinley more particularly.

The principal fight on the state ticket is for dairy and food commissioner. There are a half dozen candidates for the nomination and they are waging a double fight against Dr. McNeal, the present commissioner, who is asking for a third term, by supporting the candidacy of Judge Stillwell for member of board of public works. Judge Stillwell is from the same county as Dr. McNeal and his nomination would bar Dr. McNeal. The only candidates for secretary of state are Hon. E. W. Doty of Cleveland and Charles Kinney, chief clerk of the office under its present incumbent. A dark horse is said to be grooming for the place.

DECLARED FOR M'KINLEY.

More County Conventions Held—Grosvenor Renominated.

AKRON, O., March 10.—At the Republican district convention D. M. Massie, lawyer of Ross county, grandson of General Nathaniel Massie and Jeremiah Carpenter of Meigs county, were chosen delegates, and C. A. Cable, banker of Athens, and S. W. Poco, miner of Perry county, alternates all McKinley men. L. D. Vickers of Logan, lawyer, was nominated for presidential elector. General Charles Grosvenor of Athens was nominated by acclamation for congress. Dr. D. V. Pannels of Vinton was nominated alternate elector. Resolutions were adopted endorsing McKinley for president.

The delegates to the national convention are: Charles L. Kurtz and Henry C. Taylor of Columbus, both McKinley men. Mr. Kurtz was born Foraker's lieutenant in all his fights with the McKinley-Sherman factions. Kurtz could have named a delegate in place of Taylor, but did not. Alternates—D. L. T. Grier, Columbus; H. C. Drinkle, Lancaster.

TOLEDO, March 10.—The congressional convention unanimously renominated James H. Southard for congress from the Ninth district, and elected delegates to the St. Louis convention George H. Ketcham of Toledo and J. M. Longnecker of Waucon. Both delegates go to the convention instructed for McKinley. Mr. Southard, the nominee for congress, is a prominent young attorney of this city.

COLUMBUS, March 10.—Hon. David K. Watson was renominated by the Republicans for congress in the Twelfth district, which is usually Democratic, Mr. Watson breaking the record by defeating Mr. Outhwaite during the political landslide two years ago.

THE STATE LEGISLATURE.

The House Appoints Members to Investigate the Food Commissioner.

COLUMBUS, March 10.—Mr. Deaton's substitute for the senate joint resolution, naming the charges made against Dairy and Food Commissioner McNeal, has been adopted in the house as well as the resolution as amended. Messrs. Stewart (Clarke), Montgomery, Ward and Wiley were appointed to serve on the committee.

Bills were introduced in the house as follows:

Prohibiting the manufacture of dynamite within 160 rods of any dwelling house or summer resort.

Making it a misdemeanor to destroy markers placed on veterans' graves by the G. A. R.

Providing that the voters of Ohio shall decide the silver question by ballot.

Amending the bribery law so that the informer can be protected.

Prohibiting saloons within 400 feet of any village or special district schoolhouse.

Bills were introduced in the senate as follows:

To regulate the employment of attorneys and counselors at law in matters relating to the state.

Changing labor day from the first Monday in September to the last Saturday in August.

A bill was passed in the senate providing that the councils of all incorporated villages and towns may renew the grant of franchise of street railroads.

PREFERRED PENSION TO HUSBAND.

A West Virginia Woman's First One Turns Up After 38 Years.

GRAFTON, W. Va., March 10.—Thirty-eight years ago Marion Hess and his wife Sarah lived here. Hess joined the Union army and from that time until a few days ago Sarah had never heard of him. Supposing him dead, she married another, who was also a Union soldier. After his death Sarah was granted a pension. Later she filed an application for a pension on account of husband No. 1, and had succeeded in proving his services in the army and also his death, and was expecting to receive her second pension when Marion turned up well and alive.

He requested his long lost love to live with him, but she concluded that a pension on husband No. 2 was better than to take chances with husband No. 1. He threatened to kill her if she did not come to him. Sarah therefore swore out a warrant for his arrest, but he has not been found.

A Maniac Wounds Eight Men.

BROCKVILLE, Ont., March 10.—A maniac, who alighted from the 11:45 train, has shot eight men. One man Peter Moore, is dead, and Chief of Police Rose fatally wounded. The maniac himself was shot through the body and is now in jail. He made a terrible fight. His name is said to be Lapointe. Policeman Tinsel is shot in the arm. Dave Rough, an Indian, two Stagg brothers and a man named Kilburn are the others wounded.

The British Blue Book Arrives.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The blue book on the subject of the Venezuelan boundary published by the British government has reached Washington. The substance has already been published in these dispatches. Our own Venezuelan commission is in possession of all the data contained in these charts, thanks to their systematic efforts.

Gen. Booth Returns to London.

LONDON, March 10.—General Booth of the Salvation Army has arrived here unexpectedly. He came overland from Brindisi in response to urgent appeals from headquarters for his advice regarding the American situation. The general did not go to headquarters, but has been closeted with Bramwell Booth ever since his return.

Cullom Has Not Withdrawn.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Senator Cullom, in an interview here, said: "There is not a shadow of foundation for the report that I have retired from the race for the presidential nomination. Put that as plainly and emphatically as you can find words with which to express the idea."

Death Warrant Read to Holmes.

PHILADELPHIA, March 10.—The death warrant has been read to H. H. Holmes, the murderer of B. F. Pietzel by Sheriff Clement. Holmes remained perfectly cool during the reading and appeared less concerned than did the sheriff. Holmes expressed himself as willing to die.

Indorsed McKinley and Free Silver.

WICHITA, Kan., March 10.—Chester I. Long was nominated for congressman, Major William McKinley indorsed for president and a strong resolution favoring the free coinage of all American silver" adopted by the Seventh district Republican convention.

New Ohio Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The president has sent to the senate the following nominations for Ohio postmasters: Catherine Riley, Franklin; Elmer E. France, Kent; A. M. Kissinger, New Carlisle; William Burns, Salineville; Oella C. Munch, Yellow Springs; Frank P. Dunlap, Salem.

No Double Murder in Chicago.

CHICAGO, March 10.—Mrs. Cummings of 313 Fortieth street has identified the body of a man found in a barrel with the corpse of an infant as that of her husband, who died in the poorhouse. The mutilating was done by medical students.

Negro Uprising Feared.

PADUCAH, Ky., March 10.—Mayor D. A. Yerger has shipped to the city marshal at Fulton, Ky., in response to a private telegram, 200 Winchester rifles. There are great fears of an uprising in Fulton over a policeman clubbing a negro.

Yale Men to Race in England.

NEW HAVEN, March 10.—The Yale crew, consisting of 18 men, and Mr. Robert J. Cook ('76) as coach, will sail for England on June 6 to take part in the Henley regatta.

Money Needed for Armenians.

NEW YORK, March 10.—The national Armenian relief committee has sent $10,000 more to Constantinople. At present the greatest obstacle to the work of relief is lack of funds.

A West Virginian Fardoned.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The president has pardoned Charlie C. Rose, sentenced in West Virginia to five years in the reform school and fined for passing counterfeit money.

Chauncey Filley's Wife Dead.

ST. LOUIS, March 10.—Mrs. Chauncey Filley, wife of the prominent Republican leader, has died at her home here after an illness of one week of pneumonia.

President Holds a Reception.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The president has held his first tri-weekly reception to the public at the White House after a suspension of nearly two years.

30,000 to See Kenrick's Remains.

ST. LOUIS, N. F., March 10.—The seal fishery is being prosecuted vigorously. Twenty-two steers have left for the icefields, taking 8,000 men.

Resentenced to Be Electrocuted.

NEW YORK, March 10.—Carl Feigenbaum has been resentenced by Justice Smith to be electrocuted during the week of April 27. Feigenbaum was convicted of the murder of Mrs. Hoffman.

A Young Boy Suicides.

NEW YORK, March 10.—George Boettz, aged 17, killed himself in floral park, Union Hill, N. J., last night with a pistol. The lad had been accused by his stepfather of stealing two rings.

Unimportant House Session.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—District of Columbia business consumed the major portion of the day in the house.

DEATH STEPS IN AGAIN

Kentucky Senatorial Fight Gets Worse Mixed Up.

SENATOR WEISSINGER HAS DIED.

Even on His Death Bed He Beseeched One of His Colleagues Never to Vote for Blackburn—How the Situation Now Stands.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 10.—For the second time death has added to the complexity of a senatorial contest that has engrossed public interest in this state for two months and attracted wide attention throughout the country. The death of Senator Rozel Weissinger of Louisville removes, besides a distinguished member of the Louisville bar, one of the most active and energetic figures in the senatorial fight; a man who has within the past few weeks defeated Dr. Hunter, the Republican nominee and successfully baffled every attempt of the followers of Senator Blackburn to secure the re-election of that leader.

The exact political effect of that sad event cannot be determined, but an election seems more remote than ever. The Republicans now have 68 members of the legislature, the Democrats 67, with a probability of the support of the two Populist members as long as Blackburn is their nominee. Taking into consideration the announced determination of the Republicans to force a vote in the house today upon the Dunlap-Kaufmann contest case for the purpose of unseating Kaufmann (Dem.), the key to the situation seems to be the attitude, Lieutenant Governor Worthington, who presides at the joint session to take upon the question of a quorum.

If he holds to the decision he made when a vacancy was caused by the death of Representative Wilson that 50 shall constitute a quorum of the joint session, the Republicans, even by seating Dunlap, can count upon only 68 votes, and the Democrats, with the two Populists, will have the same number, so that either party may break a quorum at will and prevent an election. If he takes the position that since the death of Senator Weissinger 69 members constitute a quorum, the election of St. John Boyle of Louisville can be accomplished by the Republicans if they seat Dunlap and give the caucus nominees the whole party strength. This session will expire before a successor to Mr. Weissinger can be elected.

It is almost certain that today a vote will be taken in the Dunlap-Kaufmann cause, and Kaufmann, the Democratic member, will be unseated. Whether the Democratic senators retaliate or not the Republicans assert that the election of Mr. Boyle is a certainty.

The small boys have converted Seventh street into a football ground, and are learning to play the game in the most approved fashion.

A. E. McLean, of the Third ward, is a candidate on the Republican ticket for school director, and is in favor of the Bible in the public schools

Reverend Rinehart will conduct the funeral services over the remains of John Woolmaker, at the residence of the deceased, at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

A. J. Boyce's enamel works on Raine street will resume work in a few days, after a temporary shutdown. The sale for the product of the plant is increasing.

A mistake was made in these columns yesterday in announcing that the time of John Woolmaker's funeral would be 12 o'clock. It should have read 2 o'clock.

Elmer A. Stevenson, of the First ward, is a candidate on the Republican ticket for school director. Mr. Stevenson is in favor of the reading of the Bible in the schools.

Mrs. J. N. Smith, of East Market street, entertained friends last evening in honor of her friend, Miss Allison, of Beaver. Music and dancing were the features of the evening.

George W. Thomas, who has been undergoing a course of treatment in a Philadelphia hospital during the past month, returned home yesterday afternoon greatly improved in health.

The masquerade ball given last night at Bradshaw's hall was well attended, and an enjoyable time had by all present. The costumes worn were many of them unique as well as handsome.

The last words of Senator Weissinger's friends, who stood out with him, along with those who thought as he did, but deserted him, owe it to themselves, to their country and to the cause to take good heed that those who maligned him and worried him to the grave shall not profit by his untimely death."

Richard W. Knott, editor of the Louisville Post said: "Senator Weissinger's friends, who stood out with him, along with those who thought as he did, but deserted him, owe it to themselves, to their country and to the cause to take good heed that those who maligned him and worried him to the grave shall not profit by his untimely death."

WARRANT FOR CECIL RHODES.

Accused of Complicity in Transporting Arms into the Transvaal.

LONDON, March 10.—It is admitted by the police authorities that a warrant has been issued for the arrest of Mr. Cecil Rhodes. He is charged with complicity in the importation of arms into the Transvaal territory for use against the authorities of that republic.

A Capetown special says: The prominent merchant, Mr. Rutherford, who was arrested here on Friday on a charge of supplying arms to the Johannesburg Uitlanders, has been arraigned here before a magistrate. The evidence showed they come right in with the shirt waist trade. Made by the same manufacturer as the Justine waist. They are perfect in fit and style, and very much cheaper than you can have them made.

They are in serges, mohairs, brilliantines and brocaded silks.

Prices range from $2.98 to $12. There is also a large line of wrappers on display, and we think them, but they came on; then he bolted and made for the shop; the brother came out, big and strong, with outstretched arms, and the boy ran into them; then he shouted defiance: 'Look out for Bill, you fellows; he'll fix you. I can't lick you, but Bill can.' See here, men: don't you try to battle with the devil and depend upon your puny strength. Rush for the arms of your big Saviour; he'll protect you; with him you can safely defy the devil and his angels."

"A saloon-keeper said to me: 'Schivereva, do you mean to say that God will save a man like me?' I told him the Master was after just such men. He believed me, and quit the rum business, entered into business as a butcher, took God's side, and is doing better than he ever did in the rum curse."

"Why, men, a fine looking fellow in Toronto told me he despised the business he was in, that of a saloon-keeper; that it is against truth, hon'r and right, and in direct opposition to the teachings of his boyhood, in his happy Scotch home; but that he is in the cursed traffic because it's an easy way to make money. God help such men; they'll find it's an awful way, with God Almighty's curse upon it."

"God wants the bread winners of this city. I want them, as God's servant and soldier. Give me the hearts of the bread winners of East Liverpool for God, and I'll close up every infamous saloon in East Liverpool in short order."

"Billy Bray, the cornish miner, was on God's side; when asked how he was getting on, he said: 'I'm getting on all right, now; used to be getting on all wrong.' Billy says the devil came to him, after his conversion, when he was digging his potatoes and found them to be very small, and said: 'That's what you get for serving God, Billy; look at those insignificant potatoes; see how miserably small they are.' And Billy bravely made reply: 'Yes, that's a fact; but, poor, miserable, sneaking devil, I didn't get any potatoes at all, when I was serving you.'

"When I resolved to be on God's side I was left all alone; no, men, not alone, as I had God, the father, God the son, and God the holy ghost with me. I trusted God, and I've had three good, square meals per day ever since. I have a noble Christian wife, six children, three in heaven and three here on earth, and I've got a happy home. I've got all I want. I'm on the Lord's side which is the Master's side? A decided renunciation of the course of evil; that's God's side. It takes moral courage; it takes a manly man. Work from principle, not from feeling; do it because it is right, and God will bless you."

"A noted gambler, well known here and at Columbus, said to me: 'I've done with the cards. I'm going to quit them forever. I've been ruining young men, and I feel awful over it. I'm going to do right, bless God.' Do right, men; quit adultery; quit your licentiousness; quit your gambling; be on God's side.

"In my meetings in Philadelphia, a big policeman was on hand to enforce order. He came night after night, and finally made his way to within five or six feet of me and fell flat on his face. I went to him and raised his face from the floor, and said: 'What does this mean?' That big policeman cried out in agony: 'It means that I've been a bad man, and I want God to save me. It means that I want to keep out of hell, and God is my only salvation, and he is going to save me.'

"Some people want to get into heaven like I got into the circus when a boy—crawl under the canvas. You can't do it, men. Jesus says: 'I am the way, the truth and the life, and no man cometh unto the Father but by me!' God gave his own son to redeem you, men."

"I was addressing a meeting at Denver—railroad men—brotherhood of engineers; engineer went from Denver to Golden to avoid me; but he came back to Denver, into my meetings, his face as white as a sheet, and said: 'Schivereva, can you talk to me for 10 minutes?' I replied in the affirmative, and he said: 'I was at a wreck at Golden; my friend, the engineer of the passenger, was caught and had both legs cut off above the knees. I carried the poor fellow to the hotel. He was almost dying and he said to me, weakly; 'Bill, I've made my last trip, and will never again pull the throttle on a train. Bill, I'll never carry another passenger. But, thank God, Bill, I'm ready to make the run. Bid my dear wife good by, Bill; tell her it's all right. Good by, Bill. I've been on the Lord's side, Bill; and, oh, Bill it pays to be on the Lord's side. Good by, Bill, good by.'

"Oh, men of East Liverpool, don't wait until the hour of your death; it may be too late; you may not be able to say then: 'I am on the Lord's side.' Seek him while he may be found, and may God have mercy on your souls."

The after meeting was simply a wonderful one, old men and young men, old women and young women going to the inquiry rooms. Many very touching scenes occurred last night.

COURT OPENED TODAY.

AN EAST LIVERPOOL ASSIGNMENT AND A DIVORCE CASE.

Special to the NEWS REVIEW.

LISBON, March 10.—Court opened this morning, and immediately after dinner Jesse Myers, of Homeworth, was put on trial, charged with criminal assault, committed on the 16th of last October on Eliza Hahien, an 11 year old girl of that village. The crime, it will be remembered, was alleged to have been committed while the prosecuting witness was passing through the woods on her way home from school.

Richard H. Boulton, an East Liverpool grocer, assigned to J. H. Brookes in the probate court this morning. The assignee's bond is fixed at $2,000. The assignment covers $1,000 and consists of lot 1926 and part of lot 1925 in Peake's addition.

Alex. Frazier, of East Liverpool, was granted a divorce from his wife, Mary Frazier. Mrs. Frazier, it will be remembered, was arrested and fined in East Liverpool in 1893 for cohabitation with a colored man named Frank Thompson.

Martha, the infant daughter of Rev. J. P. Anderson and wife, died last evening of pneumonia.

A LETTER RECEIVED

From McLaughlin Asking When the Club Will Meet.

A communication was received by the committee of the McKinley club appointed to investigate the alleged scurrilous remarks made by J. W. McLaughlin, in an address made before a patriotic order in Pittsburgh some time since. The letter was from J. W. McLaughlin, and he desired to know when the club would meet. He did not deny or affirm any of the statements that he is credited with making. An answer was sent. A letter was also received by the committee from an authoritative source stating that although McLaughlin's remarks were not reproduced in precisely the same language by the Pittsburgh Times, the substance of his talk was not altered. The patriotic order also disapproved of the address.

DEFECTIVE FLUE.

The Department Called to Second Street Last Night.

Just before 7 o'clock last night an alarm was sent in and the department called to the residence of John Gilchrist, corner of Second and Jackson streets. The chimney was on fire, but the flames were extinguished with a few buckets of water before the arrival of the department. The damage was slight.

Left For Cincinnati.

W. J. Hanley, the agent for General Electric company, left for Cincinnati yesterday afternoon, after conferring with Councilman Stewart, of the light committee, in regard to making a deal with the city to erect a municipal light plant here. Mr. Stewart will make known to the other members of the committee the proposition from Mr. Hanley. No definite action can be taken until Superintendent of Water Works Morley is well enough to be about. Mr. Hanley will return in a month to talk the matter over further.

Elected Officers.

The Poultry association met and elected the following officers for the coming year: President, Cyrus Bayle; first vice-president, Emory Ritchie; second vice-president, Benjamin Grosshans; secretary, J. A. McIntosh; treasurer, Frank Knowles; superintendent of poultry department, J. O. Rice; assistant superintendent, A. C. Smith. The outlook for the poultry show for the coming year is considered bright.

Had Better Look Out.

Two married men of this city, one living on Sixth street and the other near the Horn switch, have been in Wellsville recently, and were acting in a manner unbecoming married men. They are both known and should cease their actions, or they will be exposed to the public. A word to the wise is sufficient.

Permanently Filled.

The positions of Misses Little and Jessop were permanently filled yesterday. Miss Ida Agner filling Miss Jessop's place, and Miss Gertrude Agner occupying the place formerly held by Miss Little.

Election Case.

In Squire Manley's court Squire J. N. Rose, as the agent of John A. Smith, entered suit in election against Joseph Smith. Case will be heard March 13.

A Good Show.

The Wil-on Theater company presented "Lost Paradise" to a packed house at the Grand last night, and gave a very delightful performance.

ASSIST NATURE

A little now and then in removing offending matter from the stomach and bowels and you thereby avoid a multitude of distressing derangements and diseases, and will have less frequent need of your doctor's service.

Of all known agents for this purpose, Dr. Pier's Pleasant Pellets are the best. Once used, they are always in favor. Their secondary effect is to keep the bowels open and regular, and to clear the other constipate, as is the case with other pills. Hence, their great popularity with sufferers from habitual constipation, piles and their attendant discomfort and manifold derangements. The "Pellets" are purely vegetable and perfectly harmless in any condition of the system. No care is required while using them; they do not interfere with the diet, habits or occupation, and produce no pain, griping or shock to the system. They act in a mild, easy and natural way and there is no reaction afterward. Their help lasts.

The Pellets cure biliousness, sick and bilious headache, dizziness, catarrh, or colds, with some slight loss of appetite, constipated tongue, indigestion, or dyspepsia, wind belching, "heartburn," pain and distress after eating, and kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels. In proof of their superior excellence, it can be truthfully said, that they are always adopted as a household remedy after the first trial. Put up in sealed, glass vials, therefore always fresh and reliable. One little "Pellet" is a laxative, two are mildly cathartic. As a "dinner pill," to promote digestion, or to relieve distress from overeating, take one after dinner. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules; any child will readily take them.

Accept no substitute that may be recommended, be "just as good." It may be better for the dealer, because of paying him a better profit, but he is not the one who needs help.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Miss Cora Neal is visiting friends in Pittsburgh.

Mrs. F. D. Kitchel is a Pittsburgh visitor today.

A. W. Stevenson went to New Cumberland on business this morning.

W. Kountz, who has been visiting friends here, returned to his home in Pittsburgh yesterday.

Miss Bertha E. Adam, who has been visiting friends in Pittsburgh, returned home yesterday.

F. M. Albright left for Chicago today for a two week's trip in the interest of the Brunt Pottery company.

Miss Mame House left this morning for Cleveland, where she accepted a position in a millinery establishment.

Doctor Laughlin was a passenger to Augusta, Carroll county. The doctor was called there by the serious illness of Mrs. George Gans.

Found His Instruments.

The surgical instruments that were lost by Doctor Norris were returned to him yesterday. The person who returned them is above suspicion, and said he had found them in the alley. As the doctor had not carried them in his pocket for several days, it looks as though the person who had stolen them dropped them as he ran.

"Perhaps you would not think so, out a very large proportion of diseases in New York comes from carelessness about catching cold," says Dr. Cyrus Edson. "It is such a simple thing, and so common that very few people, unless it is a case of pneumonia, pay any attention to a cold. There are a great many cases of catarrh and consumption which have their origin in this neglect of the simplest precaution of every day life. The most sensible advice is, when you have one, get rid of it as soon as possible. By all means do not neglect it." Doctor Edson does not tell you how to cure a cold but we will. Take Chamberlain's Cough remedy. It will relieve the lungs, aid expectoration, open the secretions and soon effect a permanent cure. Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Yes, I'll come my little darling, Calm your fears and doubt no more; I will meet my child in heaven, When this dreary life is o'er. Tell the Saviour I am coming, That he saves your papa, too; Through his blessed love and mercy, By and by I'll be with you.

Over on the other shore;

But the Saviour is inviting,

And the call is ever new;

Will you hear the invitation?

Sinner, he is calling you!

Yes, I'll come my little darling,

Calm your fears and doubt no more;

I will meet my child in heaven,

When this dreary life is o'er.

Tell the Saviour I am coming,

That he saves your papa, too;

Through his blessed love and mercy,

By and by I'll be with you.

She has passed beyond the river,

And we hear her voice no more;

She is resting, sweetly resting,

THE BOARD'S ANSWER

On the Result of the Investigation.

A RESOLUTION WAS ADOPTED

Defining the Attitude of the Board on the East End Disclosures—Petitions Were Received, and Some Referred Back for Correction—Interesting Debates.

The board of education met last night, notwithstanding a report in an irresponsible sheet to the contrary. A lengthy session followed and a general discussion on all matters that have created such dissension and differences of opinions in the minds of the people, relative to the action of the board on the Bible question and agitation over alleged injustices shown the scholars in the East End schools, was argued pro and con. A resolution, declaring the attitude of the board on the East End question, was presented by Mr. Taylor and accepted by the board as voicing their sentiments. The meeting opened promptly at 7:30, with Members Owen, Smith, Nellis, Golding, Taylor and Mrs. Whitehead present. Superintendent Sanor was an interested spectator, and occasionally interjected a suggestion on topics of interest that came up for the consideration of the board.

Mr. Smith called for remarks, and Mrs. Whitehead said: "I would like to have the board understand that my position is with me and my God. The opinion of the town does not direct me in my stand. I feel conscientious about this, and have prayed for the board."

Mr. Smith—We differ in our opinions.

Mrs. Whitehead previously made a motion that the communication from the Presbyterian church be received. Owen said that he could not second the motion because of the objectionable clause in it that the board were dishonoring God.

Golding—Do you believe, Mrs. Whitehead, that we are dishonoring God?

Mrs. Whitehead—I do.

Then followed a spirited argument between Mrs. Whitehead and Mr. Golding on the rights and considerations that Catholics are entitled to in the public schools.

Mr. Golding thought that if gems were to be used instead of the Bible that they select those that would not be obnoxious to the Catholics in their belief.

Mr. Taylor—Do you believe, Mrs. Whitehead, that there are any Christian Catholics?

Mrs. Whitehead—I do. And I would to God that members of our church were as loyal as they are to their church. This was spoken with great depth of feeling.

The minds of the board suddenly reverted back to the petition that had been lost sight of temporarily, during the debate on the rights of Catholics. A motion to refer the petition back to the original authors for correction was carried.

Mr. Golding maintained, in reference to the clause objected to in the petition, that if he thought that the board were dishonoring God, he wanted to get out of it; but he did not think they were.

Another unsigned petition was laid to one side. Mr. Taylor wanted it understood that it was not the intention of the board to antagonize the Christian societies.

Mr. Nellis—They certainly must be misinformed. Perhaps it has been preached to them, added Mr. Owen. These comments referred to alleged misrepresentations of facts in petitions received.

A memorial from the Second United Presbyterian church, of the East End, was next deemed incorrect and it went the way of many of its predecessors.

The committee appointed to communicate with the Smead Heating and Ventilating company, reported that no answer had been received from them yet.

The East End question of the differences up there was next given attention. Mr. Brookes had informed the Secretary that he did not think it was necessary to continue the hearing any further, as the balance of the testimony that had not been introduced was practically the same as had been heard.

Mr. Taylor, referring to the liberties that should be given the scholars, said that the teachers should use discretion in the matter; and that the rule that is now in vogue in the schools should be done away with.

President Smith, rather emphatically—"Yes, I did."

Mrs. Whitehead—Can we then use it as other books?

President Smith—"No, the Bible shall not be used as a textbook." Mr. Taylor in a few remarks, coincided with what the president just said. Adding further, he said that he had told Miss Jessop that both teachers and scholars could bring their Bibles to the school and have them on their desks if they wished. If the board are censurable, then censure them.

Mr. Taylor referred to the construction that had been placed upon the action of the board. It had been said that the Bible had been banished. This was a strong term to use, thought Mr. Taylor, and was entirely inappropriate and he contended that the Bible was not banished.

Mrs. Whitehead then made reply, that it would not be long until it would be entirely banished from the schools if the present action of the board was any criterion.

Mr. Taylor, with much force—"I thank God that there are men in this town that take more liberal views. Then the communication that had been read before this spirited discussion came up, was referred back for correction.

Then Reverend George, who preached here some time since, and assailed the attitude of the board, came in for a few derogatory comments.

A communication from the Presbyterian church, characterizing the action of the board as dishonoring God, was next read. Another communication also received was laid to one side because it was unsigned.

Mr. Smith called for remarks, and Mrs. Whitehead said: "I would like to have the board understand that my position is with me and my God. The opinion of the town does not direct me in my stand. I feel conscientious about this, and have prayed for the board."

Golding, firmly—I don't believe that, Mr. Sanor.

Sanor—I think that these matters should be left in the hands of the superintendent.

Taylor—I think that it is within the board's province to direct the superintendent in this matter.

Mrs. Whitehead then made reply, that it would not be long until it would be entirely banished from the schools if the present action of the board was any criterion.

treatment of their children without ever consulting with the teacher or himself. It was almost the unanimous opinion of the board, judging from the testimony given last Monday night, that the teacher had erred. Complaint was also made that children were refused water, and it was suggested that hereafter they be furnished with water and have the privilege of recess. Then the following resolution, submitted by Mr. Taylor, outlining the expression of the board in regard to their opinion on the investigation of their

East End agitation, was read and adopted. The following is the resolution.

Resolved, That the regulation in the schools, so far as it relates to scholars being detained after school hours for having received permission to go out during school hours, be abolished, and that the superintendent of the schools impress upon each teacher the necessity of using the greatest care possible with scholars, particularly those of tender years, and further,

Resolved, That the board, superintendent and teachers would consider it a great help to the proper conducting of the schools, in the advancement of scholarship and good government, if the parents and children would apprise the teacher first of any complaint, or irregularity that may seem to exist, and especially the particular condition and weakness of any child, it being the desire of the board, superintendent and teacher alike to conduct the schools in a manner that will be productive of the best results, keeping in mind careful thought for the health of the children. Further, resolved that the parents of all children should assist the conductors of the schools in all reasonable ways in the judicious enforcement of all rules which have for their end the advancement, obedience and good behavior of the scholars.

A letter from Miss Moore was read in her defense in the event of the introduction of more testimony by parents.

The question of the board electing two members from each ward was to have been brought up last night, but was forgotten. It was the intent of the board to take action toward this step, as we are a city district of the first-class.

The meeting then adjourned.

CLAIMS COMMITTEE.

The Electric Light Bill the Only One Referred Back.

Claims committee met last night and passed upon the following bills:

Bryan, $21.00; Norman, $2.00.

The bill of the Ceramic City Light company for $332 was referred back, as there was no allowance in the bill for lights being out on various occasions.

NAILED THEM IN.

The Youngsters Have Fun With a Couple of Their Number.

The small boys have an immense amount of fun in playing around the large boxes that are left standing at the corner of Fourth and Washington streets, but capped the climax yesterday afternoon, when they nailed two of their companions and a small dog in one of the boxes. After nailing the box up tight they tipped it over on its side on the pavement, and took their departure, leaving the boys to get out the best way they could.

A great deal of hammering was then commenced, and the boys at last succeeded in pushing a board off and crawling out, adding much to their own comfort as well as that of the dog.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O. TUESDAY, MARCH 10.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
Of Ohio.

SETTLE THE QUESTION.

Fathers and mothers—heads of households; lovers of good government; lovers of our grand and glorious public school system; lovers of social purity, morality and clean lives, settle the Bible question in your hearts and lives. Then settle it with your ballot, first at the primaries and then at the spring election. If the Bible be God's inspired word, then it is the book which should and must control human destinies and lives, preparing children for time and for eternity. God can do the work without human aid; but we believe that, in this instance, he will use human instruments to "roll away the stone." Be up and doing. Have the courage of your convictions, Christian men and women. If God be on your side, all the machinations and petty trickery of men will amount to nothing against you. Turn on the light.

READ VERY CAREFULLY.

Yes, read very carefully the remarks made by the members of our school board, at the meeting held last night. You will find a full report in today's issue. Don't misjudge any members of the board. Judge him or her on their own language. It is very plain reading, and any one of common sense may plainly see who favors the reading of the Bible in our public schools, and who does not. Read carefully, however, and then vote just as carefully. Don't cast a ballot for the man or woman who objects to the reading of the Bible in the schools of East Liverpool, even if that person be the dearest friend you have on earth. The matter has gone beyond personality. It is now a matter of Christian principle. God will not be mocked. He will not allow his inspired word to be added to or taken from. Yes, read last night's session very carefully.

THE LITTLE CHILD.

What little child have we reference to? A little boy, 10 years of age, bright and winsome, a resident of East Liverpool, and who has heard Evangelist Schiavera speak of the curse of card playing, in the home circle, said to his mother the other day: "Mamma, I wish you and papa would not play cards in our home. I want to go to heaven, and I want you and papa to be there with me; won't you quit playing cards at our home?" The words cut to the heart. The husband and father was away from home, but the wife could not await his return. She wrote him a kindly, wifely, loving letter, relating the incident just as it had occurred, and when his answer came, how it gladdened her heart, for her husband is a manly man, and his letter said: "Yes, dear, we want to meet our boy in heaven, please, God, and we will banish cards and the card table now and forever, from our home." "And a little child shall lead them." Schiavera, thank God, the seed has fallen upon good ground.

NAMED YOUR CANDIDATES.

Get out your candidates, oh ye lovers of the Bible and believers in the "READING OF THE BIBLE IN THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS." Fair play compels us to say that, as business men, and men of ability, the present board is composed of men who are fully able to take care of business affairs connected with educational matters. The only question to which the public demands an answer is: "Are the candidates for or against the reading of the Bible in the public schools of East Liverpool?" This must be the issue; this is the living, throbbing, all-absorbing issue; this is the verdict of the people. Men and women who advocate the blessed word of God, and its reading in the schools, by the teachers, to the pupils, must exhibit common sense, and use this blessing as given by God. Republican advocates of the "Reading" of the book, you have only until tomorrow night, Wednesday, March 11th, to name your candidates on this ticket. Be up and doing. Don't let this opportunity pass, and then cry out that the Republican Central committee has not used you fairly. Name your candidates at once, and have an explicit, undeniable understanding with them that they favor the reading of the Bible in the schools.

HOT TALK OVER CUBA.

Conference Report Blocked In the Senate.

HALE'S VIGOROUS OPPOSITION.

He Says the United States Interference in European Affairs Is Insoient—Tries to Read Minister De Lome's Statement, but Some Senators Object.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Another stirring chapter in the Spanish-Cuban controversy has been added by the senate. Many senators indicated a desire to be heard on the subject and the conference report, accepting the house Cuban resolutions, went over until today. In anticipation that the last stage of the Cuban question would be reached, the greatest crowd of spectators seen since the session opened was present.

The speech of the day was made by Senator Hale (Me.), in vigorous opposition to this resolution and to the offensive interference of the United States in foreign questions. The senator declared that the spirit of militarism was abroad in the land; that our course involved the possibilities of war with all its dreadful consequences. Mr. Hale brought out the friendly action of Spain at the time of our civil war, when British built privateers were prevented from remaining for any length of time in Spanish ports and when American prisoners were aboard they were released by Spanish orders.

A dramatic incident occurred when Mr. Hale offered to read the statement of Minister de Lome of Spain, calling in question the accuracy of some of the statements made by Senators Sherman, Morgan and Lodge concerning Spanish atrocities. Mr. Davis of Minnesota quickly objected to the reception of a document from a foreign minister not formally transmitted. Messrs. Mitchell of Oregon and Teller added their protests in the same direction. For a time there was some confusion and a prospect of a serious scene, but serenity was brought about by Senator Davis by withdrawal of the objection.

It is expected the debate will continue to have an animated phase. Mr. Hoar offered a resolution postponing all action on the Cuban question until April 6. This resolution will come up under the rules today and may form the basis of opposition to an adoption of the house conference report. Another resolution by Mr. Hoar was adopted, calling on the president for all available information on the Cuban question.

STILL RIOTING IN SPAIN.

A Mob Stones the U. S. Consul's Residence in Bilbao.

MADRID, March 10.—The turbulent element in the city of Bilbao, which created disturbances, continued to defy the authorities and has made violent demonstrations in spite of the armed threat of the gendarmes.

The disorders were renewed near the American consulate and a determined effort was made to reach the building where the consulate is located. The gendarmes showed equal determination in frustrating this attempt and succeeded.

But this was not done without a serious collision between the mob and gendarmes, in which 20 of the former are known to have been injured, though it is not stated that any fatalities resulted. Nine of the gendarmes were also injured.

Elsewhere in Spain the situation bears a more tranquil aspect, and the question of the action of the United States on Cuba is regarded in a calmer mood.

The anti-American riot yesterday was participated in by about 12,000 people. The house of the United States consul was stoned.

THE CUBANS RETALIATING.

A Movement to Exclude American Flour Stopped by Spain.

GALVESTON, March 10.—The Texas Star mills loaded the steamship Gyller for Cienfuegos and other Spanish-American ports. Before she sailed her agent at Havana cabled: "Great excitement prevails, don't ship flour."

In response to an inquiry another came: "Reprisals action congress."

From this the exporters inferred that American flour is to be excluded from Cuba on account of the recent action of congress.

The ship's destination was changed to other West India points and she sailed. Then this cable was received: "Have no other news, can you proceed."

The inference is that the local authorities had resolved to retaliate against American commerce and the Madrid government interposed.

THE ST. LOUIS COLLISION.

Three Men Have Died and One Has Fatal Injuries.

ST. LOUIS, March 10.—Three men are dead and one more is not expected to live as the result of the collision on the St. Louis and Kirkwood Electric line, mentioned in these dispatches yesterday. Fifty more are more or less seriously, but not fatally injured.

The dead are: Richard Lanigan, insurance agent, St. Louis; Junius A. Jones, claim agent M. K. & T. railway, and J. H. Aiken, motorman car No. 3, eastbound. Sam Smith, motorman car No. 2, westbound, will likely die, both legs being broken, his head crushed and he is internally injured.

General Manager Houseman states positively that the entire blame rests with J. H. Aiken, the motorman of the eastbound car, who was so seriously injured that he died.

MAX LEBAUDY'S BLACKMAILERS.

Prominent Men on Trial in Paris—An Actress Defended Him.

PARIS, March 10.—The trial of Armand Rosenthal (Jacques St. Cere), Count Lionel Werther de Cesti, M. Balensi, a banker; Ulric de Civry, formerly editor of The Echo de L'Arme; M. Poidebar de Labryere and M. Szydlowsky, charged with blackmailing Max Lebaudy, the young millionaire who died recently in the military hospital at Amble-Les-Bains out of large sums of money and by the most cruel fronds, has been commenced here.

Rosenthal was formerly connected with The Paris Figaro, and was correspondent in this city for a New York newspaper.

During his latter days Lebaudy was defended against his enemies by Mme. Marsy, the well known Parisian actress,

In response to an inquiry another came: "Reprisals action congress."

From this the exporters inferred that American flour is to be excluded from Cuba on account of the recent action of congress.

Last Honors to Greenhalge.

LOWELL, Mass., March 10.—Governor Frederick H. Greenhalge's funeral was an imposing spectacle. The Rev. J. L. Seward of Alston and the Rev. George Batchelor, for many years pastor of the Unitarian church of this city, of which Governor Greenhalge was a member, officiated. The list of honorary pallbearers included the names of Senator Lodge, Hon. H. M. Knowlton, Mayor Courtney and President Eliot of Harvard university.

Republican State Convention Convened This Afternoon.

A HOT FIGHT ON DR. MCNEIL.

Half a Dozen Candidates Want to Be Named For Dairy and Food Commissioner—Slated Delegates-at-Large Will Be Named.

COLUMBUS, March 10.—The Republican state convention assembled in this city at 3:30 this afternoon to nominate candidates for secretary of state, member of board of public works, judge of supreme court and dairy and food commissioner, and to select four delegates-at-large to the Republican national convention at St. Louis.

Senator-elect Foraker is presiding as temporary chairman.

It is practically settled that Governor Bushnell, Senator-elect Foraker, Congressman Grosvenor and Hon. Mark Hanna will be the delegates-at-large. All are pledged for McKinley for president, although Grosvenor and Hanna represent McKinley more particularly. The principal fight on the state ticket is for dairy and food commissioner. There are a half dozen candidates for the nomination and they are waging a double fight against Dr. McNeal, the present commissioner, who is asking for a third term, by supporting the candidacy of Judge Stillwell for member of board of public works. Judge Stillwell is from the same county as Dr. McNeal and his nomination would bar Dr. McNeal. The only candidates for secretary of state are Hon. E. W. Doty of Cleveland and Charles Kinney, chief clerk of the office under its present incumbent. A dark horse is said to be grooming for the place.

DECLARED FOR M'KINLEY.

More County Conventions Held—Grosvenor Renominated.

AKRON, O., March 10.—At the Republican district convention D. M. Masie, lawyer of Ross county, grandson of General Nathaniel Massie and Jeremiah Carpenter of Meigs county, were chosen delegates, and C. A. Cable, banker of Athens, and S. W. Peo, miner of Perry county, alternates, all McKinley men. L. D. Vickers of Logan, lawyer, was nominated for presidential elector. General Charles Grosvenor of Athens was nominated by acclamation for congress. Dr. D. V. Daniels of Vinton was nominated alternate elector. Resolutions were adopted endorsing McKinley for president.

Indorsed McKinley and Free Silver.

WICHITA, Kan., March 10.—Chester L. Long was nominated for congressman, Major William McKinley indorsed for president and a strong resolution favoring "the free coinage of all American silver" adopted by the Seventh district Republican convention.

PREFERRED PENSION TO HUSBAND.

A West Virginia Woman's First One Turns Up After 38 Years.

GRAFTON, W. Va., March 10.—Thirty-eight years ago Marion Hess and his wife Sarah lived here. Hess joined the Union army and from that time until a few days ago Sarah had never heard of him. Supposing him dead, she married another, who was also a Union soldier. After his death Sarah was granted a pension. Later she filed an application for a pension on account of husband No. 1, and had succeeded in proving his services in the army and also his death, and was expecting to receive her second pension when Marion turned up well and alive.

He requested his long lost love to live with him, but she concluded that a pension on husband No. 2 was better than to take chances with husband No. 1. He threatened to kill her if she did not come to him. Sarah therefore swore out a warrant for his arrest, but he has not been found.

A Maniac Wounds Eight Men.

BROCKVILLE, Ont., March 10.—A maniac, who alighted from the 11:45 train, has shot eight men. One man Peter Moore, is dead, and Chief of Police Rose fatally wounded. The maniac himself was shot through the body and is now in jail. He made a terrible fight. His name is said to be Lapointe. Policeman Tinsel is shot in the arm. Dave Rough, an Indian, two Stagg brothers and a man named Kilburn are the others wounded.

The British Blue Book Arrives.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—The blue book on the subject of the Venezuelan boundary published by the British government has reached Washington. The substance has already been published in these dispatches. Our own Venezuelan commission is in possession of all the data contained in these charts, thanks to their systematic efforts.

Gen. Booth Returns to London.

LONDON, March 10.—General Booth of the Salvation Army has arrived here unexpectedly. He came overland from Brindisi in response to urgent appeals from headquarters for his advice regarding the American situation. The general did not go to headquarters, but has been closeted with Bramwell Booth ever since his return.

Cullom Has Not Withdrawn.

WASHINGTON, March 10.—Senator Cullom, in an interview here, said: "There is not a shadow of foundation for the report that I have retired from the race for the presidential nomination. Put that as plainly and emphatically as you can find words with which to express the idea."

Death Warrant Read to Holmes.

PHILADELPHIA, March 10.—The death warrant has been read to H. H. Holmes, the murderer of B. F. Pitzel by Sheriff Clement. Holmes remained perfectly cool during the reading and appeared less concerned than did the sheriff. Holmes expressed himself as willing to die.

Richard W. Knott, editor of the Louisville Post said: "Senator Weissinger's friends, who stood out with him, along with those who thought as he did, but deserted him, owe it to themselves, to their country and to the cause to take good heed that those who maligned him and worried him to the grave shall not profit by his untimely death."

Bills were introduced in the house as follows:

Prohibiting the manufacture of dynamite within 160 rods of any dwelling house or summer resort.

Making it a misdemeanor to destroy markers placed on veterans' graves by the G. A. R.

Providing that the voters of Ohio shall decide the silver question by ballot.

Amending the bribery law so that the informer can be protected.

Prohibiting saloons within 400 feet of any village or special district schoolhouse.

Bills were introduced in the senate as follows:

To regulate the employment of attorneys and counselors at law in matters relating to the counsels.

Changing labor day from the first Monday in September to the last Saturday in August.

A bill was passed in the senate providing that the councils of all incorporated villages and towns may renew the grant of franchise of street railroads.

DEATH STEPS IN AGAIN

Kentucky Senatorial Fight Gets Worse Mixed Up.

SENATOR WEISSINGER HAS DIED.

Even on His Death Bed He Beseeched One of His Colleagues Never to Vote For Blackburn—How the Situation Now Stands.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 10.—For the second time death has added to the complexity of a senatorial contest that has engrossed public interest in this state for two months and attracted wide attention throughout the country. The death of Senator Rozel Weissinger of Louisville removes, besides a distinguished member of the Louisville bar, one of the most active and energetic figures in the senatorial fight; a man who has within the past few weeks defeated Dr. Hunter, the Republican nominee and successfully baffled every attempt of the followers of Senator Blackburn to secure the re-election of that leader.

The exact political effect of that sad event cannot be determined, but an election seems more remote than ever. The Republicans now have 68 members of the legislature, the Democrats 67, with a probability of the support of the two Populist members as long as Blackburn is their nominee. Taking into consideration the announced determination of the Republicans to force a vote in the house today upon the Dunlap-Kaufmann contest case for the purpose of unseating Kaufmann (Dem.), the key to the situation seems to be the attitude, Lieutenant Governor Worthington, who presides at the joint session will take upon the question of a quorum.

If he holds to the decision he made when a vacancy was caused by the death of Representative Wilson that 70 shall constitute a quorum of the joint session, the Republicans, even by seating Dunlap, can count upon only 68 votes, and the Democrats, with the two Populists, will have the same number, so that either party may break a quorum at will and prevent an election. If he takes the position that since the death of Senator Weissinger 69 members constitute a quorum, the election of John Boyle of Louisville can be accomplished by the Republicans if they seat Dunlap and give the caucus nomination of the whole party strength. This session will expire before a successor to Mr. Weissinger can be elected.

It is almost certain that today a vote will be taken in the Dunlap-Kaufmann cause, and Kaufmann, the Democratic member, will be unseated. Whether the Democratic senators retaliate or not the Republicans assert that the election of Mr. Boyle is a certainty.

The Democrats say they will go into the joint session until an attempt to unseat Kaufman is made. Beyond that the politics of the situation cannot be foretold.

The last words of Senator Weissinger, spoken to his colleague, Senator Violet, and reported by that senator were these: "Violet, stand firm, stand firm, never vote for Blackburn and free silver."

Richard W. Knott, editor of the Louisville Post said: "Senator Weissinger's friends, who stood out with him, along with those who thought as he did, but deserted him, owe it to themselves, to their country and to the cause to take good heed that those who maligned him and worried him to the grave shall not profit by his untimely death."

WARRANT FOR CECIL RHODES.

ACCUSED OF COMPLICITY IN TRANSPORTING ARMS INTO THE TRANSVAAL.

LONDON, March 10.—It is admitted by the police authorities that a warrant has been issued for the arrest of Mr. Cecil Rhodes. He is charged with complicity in the importation of arms into the Transvaal territory for use against the authorities of that republic.

A Capetown special says: The prominent merchant, Mr. Rutherford, who was arrested here on Friday on a charge of supplying arms to the Johannesburg Ulanders, has been arraigned here before a magistrate. The evidence showed

THE MASQUERADE BALL.

LONDON, March 10.—It is admitted by the police authorities that a warrant has been issued for the arrest of Mr. Cecil Rhodes. He is charged with complicity in the importation of arms into the Transvaal territory for use against the authorities of that republic.

The masquerade ball given last night at Bradshaw's hall was well attended, and an enjoyable time had by all present. The costumes worn were many of them unique as well as handsome.

George W. Thomas, who has been undergoing a course of treatment in a Philadelphia hospital during the past month, returned home yesterday afternoon greatly improved in health.

COURT OPENED TODAY.

An East Liverpool Assignment and a Divorce Case.

Special to the NEWS REVIEW.

LISBON, March 10.—Court opened this morning, and immediately after dinner Jesse Myers, of Homeworth, was put on trial, charged with criminal assault, committed on the 16th of last October on Eliza Hahlen, an 11 year old girl of that village. The crime, it will be remembered, was alleged to have been committed while the prosecuting witness was passing through the woods on her way home from school.

Richard H. Boulton, an East Liverpool grocer, assigned to J. H. Brookes in the probate court this morning. The assignee's bond is fixed at $2,000. The assignment covers $1,000 and consists of lot 1926 and part of lot 1925 in Peake's addition.

Alex. Frazier, of East Liverpool, was granted a divorce from his wife, Mary Frazier. Mrs. Frazier, it will be remembered, was arrested and fined in East Liverpool in 1893 for cohabitation with a colored man named Frank Thompson.

Martha, the infant daughter of Rev. J. P. Anderson and wife, died last evening of pneumonia.

A LETTER RECEIVED

From McLaughlin Asking When the Club Will Meet.

A communication was received by the committee of the McKinley club appointed to investigate the alleged scurrilous remarks made by J. W. McLaughlin, in an address made before a patriotic order in Pittsburgh some time since. The letter was from J. W. McLaughlin, and he desired to know when the club would meet. He did not deny or affirm any of the statements that he is credited with making. An answer was sent. A letter was also received by the committee from an authoritative source stating that although McLaughlin's remarks were not reproduced in precisely the same language by the Pittsburgh Times the substance of his talk was not altered. The patriotic order also disapproved of the address.

DEFECTIVE FLUE.

The Department Called to Second Street Last Night.

Just before 7 o'clock last night an alarm was sent in and the department called to the residence of John Gilchrist, corner of Second and Jackson streets. The chimney was on fire, but the flames were extinguished with a few buckets of water before the arrival of the department. The damage was slight.

A noted gambler, well known here and at Columbus, said to me: "I'm done with the cards. I'm going to quit them forever. I've been ruining young men, and I feel awful over it. I'm going to do right, bless God." Do right, men: quit adultery; quit your licentiousness; quit your gambling; be on God's side.

In my meetings in Philadelphia, a big policeman was on hand to enforce order. He came night after night, and finally made his way to within five or six feet of me and fell flat on his face. I went to him and raised his face from the floor, and said: "What does this mean?" That big policeman cried out in agony: "It means that I've been a bad man, and I want God to save me. It means that I want to keep out of hell, and God is my only salvation, and he is going to save me."

Some people want to get into heaven like I got into the circus when a boy—crawled under the canvas. You can't do it, men. Jesus says: "I am the way, the truth and the life, and no man cometh unto the Father but by me!" God gave his own son to redeem you, men.

I was addressing a meeting at Denver—railroad men—brotherhood of engineers; engineer went from Denver to Golden to avoid me; but, he came back to Denver, into my meetings, his face as white as a sheet, and said: "Schivere, can you talk to me for 10 minutes?" I replied in the affirmative, and he said: "I was at a wreck at Golden; my friend, the engineer of the passenger was caught and had both legs cut off above the knees. I carried the poor fellow to the hotel. He was almost dying and he said to me, weakly: 'Bill, I've made my last trip, and will never again pull the throttle on a train. Bill, I'll never carry another passenger. But, thank God, Bill, I'm ready to make the run. Bid my dear wife good by, Bill; tell her it's all right. Good by, Bill. I've been on the Lord's side, Bill; and, oh, Bill, it pays to be on the Lord's side. Good by, Bill, good by."

"Oh, men of East Liverpool, don't wait until the hour of your death; it may be too late; you may not be able to say then: "I am on the Lord's side." Seek him while he may be found, and may God have mercy on your souls."

a little now and then in removing offending matter from the stomach and bowels and you thereby avoid a multitude of distressing derangements and disarrangements and will have less frequent need of your doctor's service.

Of all known agents for this purpose, Dr. Price's Pleasant Pellets are the best. Once used, they are always in favor. Their secondary effect is to keep the bowels open and regular, not to further constipate, as is the case with other pills. Hence, they are great popular with sufferers from habitual constipation and their attendant discomforts and manifold derangements. The "Pellets" are purely vegetable and perfectly harmless in any condition of the system. No care is required while using them; they do not interfere with the diet, habits or occupation, and produce no pain, griping or shock to the system. They act in a mild, easy and natural way and there is no reaction afterward. Their help lasts.

The Pellets cure biliousness, sick and bilious headache, dizziness, costiveness, or constipation, sour stomach, loss of appetite, coated tongue, indigestion, or dyspepsia, wind belches, heartburn, pain and distress in the chest, kindred derangements of the liver, stomach and bowels. In proof of their superior excellence, it can be truthfully said, that they are always adopted as a household remedy after the first trial. Put up in sealed glass vials, therefore always fresh and reliable. One little "Pellet" is a laxative, two are mildly cathartic. As a "dinner pill" to promote digestion, or to relieve distress from overeating, take one after dinner. They are tiny, sugar-coated granules; any child will readily take them.

Accept no substitute that may be recommended to be "just as good." It may be better for the dealer, because of paying him a better profit, but he is not the one who needs help.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Miss Cora Neal is visiting friends in Pittsburgh.

—Mrs. F. D. Kitchel is a Pittsburgh visitor today.

—A. W. Stevenson went to New Cumberland on business this morning.

—W. Kountz, who has been visiting friends here, returned to his home in Pittsburgh yesterday.

—Miss Bertha E. Adam, who has been visiting friends in Pittsburgh, returned home yesterday.

—F. M. Albright left for Chicago today for a two week's trip in the interest of the Brunt Pottery company.

—Miss Mamie House left this morning for Cleveland, where she accepted a position in a millinery establishment.

—Doctor Laughlin was a passenger to Augusta, Carroll county. The doctor was called there by the serious illness of Mrs. George Gans.

Found His Instruments.

The surgical instruments that were lost by Doctor Norris were returned to him yesterday. The person who returned them is above suspicion, and said he had found them in the alley.

As the doctor had not carried them in his pocket for several days, it looks as though the person who had stolen them dropped them as he ran.

"Perhaps you would not think so, but a very large proportion of diseases in New York comes from carelessness about catching a cold." says Dr. Cyrus Edison. "It is such a simple thing and so common that very few people, unless it is a case of pneumonia, pay any attention to a cold. There are a great many cases of catarrh and consumption which have their origin in this neglect of the simplest precaution of every day life. The most sensible advice is, when you have one, get rid of it as soon as possible. By all means do not neglect it." Doctor Edison does not tell you how to cure a cold but we will. Take Chamberlain's Cough remedy. It will relieve the pains, aid expectoration, open the secretions and soon effect a permanent cure. Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Met Last Night.

Company E met last night and discussed cigars with a number of candidates for municipal offices. Will Hill has been prevailed upon to permit his name to be used as a candidate for the captaincy.

Chamberlain's Cough remedy gives the best satisfaction of any cough medicine I handle, and as a seller leads all other preparations in this market. VERY TOUCHING.

The Plea and Death of a Loving Little Christian.

The following is published in the NEWS REVIEW at the earnest request of those who heard Mr. Weeden sing the song at the rink last night.

Near my home in Braddock, Pa., lived the subject of this story and song—Amy Grace Beable. She was dearly loved by all who knew her, and by the constant playmate of our children, she was particularly dear to us. Although but a child of nine years, she was a devoted Christian, ever busy in the service of the Master. One day, while playing, she jumped from a fence and injured her spine, which finally resulted in her death, after a sickness lasting two years. During this time her life was remarkable. Her father, who was an unsaved man, now became the constant subject of her prayers. Often she would embrace him and plead earnestly with him to give his heart to the Saviour, but his rebellious soul would not yield. Although the best medical skill was employed, she continued to grow worse, and finally she came near the end of her life in this world. Two days before she passed away she called her mother to her, put her arms about her neck, telling her she was going to die, and asked if she could spare her, saying that Jesus wanted her and she must soon go. "Yes, I can let the Saviour have you, my darling," was the mother's reply. The last hour came. Arousing from a peaceful slumber, she felt the angels bearing her soul away, and gave expression to these beautiful words: "I'm going up; come, hurry up, mamma, tell papa to come." Then speaking to others she said: "Won't you come?" All agreed to meet her except one, who remained silent. She asked the question the second time: "Won't you come?" Then to her father, who had just arrived, she said: "Papa, come:—shall I look for you?" This was the last invitation, and the father accepted it, saying: "I will come; I can't have my child in heaven and not be there too." And kneeling by her bedside, he sought and found the pardon of his sins. Then, rising to his feet, he assured her that he would meet her at heaven's gate, sending this message: "Tell Jesus that the same Saviour that saved you saves your papa." Then her spirit took its flight and her work was finished, but the story of her sweet life continues. In prose and in song it is being told over and over again, and many souls are being reached by it. God bless it, and may the influence of these nine beautiful years be felt as long as time shall last, and may her crown glitter with many stars in the world to come.

I am going up, dear papa,
Are you coming by and by?

Won't you come to see your darling
In the home beyond the sky?

At the gateway I'll be waiting

When the loving ones pass through:

I will see them as they enter;

Papa, shall I look for you?

Won't you promise me, dear papa?
Jesus wants you there, I know;

Will you meet me up in heaven?

Tell me now, before I go.

At the gateway I'll be waiting

When the loving ones pass through:

I will see them as they enter;

Papa, shall I look for you?

Yes, I'll come my little darling,

Calm your fears and doubt no more;

I will meet my child in heaven.

When this dear life is o'er,

Tell the Saviour I am coming.

That he saves your papa, too;

Through his blessed love and mercy,

By and by I'll be with you.

She has passed beyond the river,

And we hear her voice no more;

She is resting, sweetly resting.

Over on the other shore;

But the Saviour is inviting,

And the call is ever new;

Will you hear the invitation?

Sinner, he is calling you!
